WHAT IS DIIGO?

Diigo is a social bookmarking tool that helps you read, share and organize the web pages you look at. In addition, it allows you to share your bookmarks, as well as browse bookmarks created by others. Diigo has dual purpose - it acts as a bookmarking tool, as well as a social networking tool (Educause 2009).

BENEFITS OF USING DIIGO

Diigo can be used as follows:

1. Take personal notes
2. Highlights text information on web pages
3. Bookmark and save notes for further use
4. Add tags to keep them organized
5. Share information when using tags

(Source: http://www.slideshare.net/poutasi/what-is-diigo)
ADVANTAGES OF USING ANNOTATION TOOLS IN EDUCATION

Educause (2009) describes the following advantages of using annotation tools in education:

1. The activity of adding reflections move students from being passive consumers of information to active readers engaged in scholarly discussions.

2. Collaborative annotation tools offer new ways for students to work collaboratively to find and evaluate information, share ideas, and create knowledge.

3. Collaborative annotation tools facilitate the incremental growth of information as users review others’ thoughts on a resource before adding their own. By providing the ability to designate who is allowed access to collections of resources, these tools reinforce the character of a cohesive group.

4. Because they are web-based, collaborative annotation applications can be made available to a global community, inviting experts in academic disciplines to provide valuable insight on students’ efforts.

5. As students collectively annotate, organize, and add value to existing resources, they learn how to sift, evaluate, and contribute. When instructors use these tools over time, student efforts might constitute an archive or library of remarks so that subsequent classes can benefit from the observations of their predecessors.
Collaborative annotation tools are a social starting place for immersing students in the scholarly practice of research and annotation, while encouraging them to share information and build on the work of others in a dynamic community of thought. With tools like Diigo, students might have the opportunity to collaborate on the interpretation of resources in ways not possible inside a classroom or with printed materials that should not be written in, such as library books. In addition, while scholars have found in the web an unparalleled information resource, using it effectively depends on tools that help organize the data and simplify the process of locating resources when they are needed. These tools empower users, giving them the capability of commentary and reflection rather than restricting it to authors and website creators. Finally, academics across disciplines and institutions value these tools and the accumulated observations of instructors, experts, and peers that they facilitate (Educause 2009).
Chapter 1: Diigo

GET STARTED WITH DIIGO

STEP 1
Go to http://www.diigo.com/

STEP 2
Creating an Account

1. Click ‘Join Now’ to create a Diigo account.

2. Start creating your account by completing the form.

3. After filling in the required information, click ‘Continue’.
Chapter 1: Diigo

Installing Diigo Toolbar

STEP 3

1. 3 steps to install Diigo toolbar.
   - First, you need to click ‘Allow’.
   - Diigo will send you an email. You need to click the link given so that you can activate your Diigo account.
   - After verifying, you will be invited to install the Diigo toolbar and learn more about Diigo’s capabilities.
   - Now, you can start installing your Diigo toolbar by clicking this button.
This window will appear and you need to click ‘Install Now’.

Now, your Diigo toolbar is already installed on your computer.
STEP 4

Diigo Toolbar

- Open sidebar
- Store and tag your bookmarks online
- Highlight the web just as you would on paper
- Leave/view comments on a webpage
- Send your findings in various ways

Diigo Sidebar

Chapter 1: Diigo

STEP 5

Bookmarking

1. First, open the web page or URL you want to bookmark.

2. Click the ‘Bookmark’ button to add a bookmark.

3. This window will appear automatically.

4. Insert your tag.

5. Click ‘Save’ to save your bookmark in the Diigo library.
To view your bookmark, go to the ‘Diigo’ toolbar and choose ‘My Library’.

Now, the web you bookmarked will appear in your Diigo Library together with the relevant tags.
STEP 6

Highlighting

Then, click the ‘Highlight’ button toolbar.

First, you need to select the text you want to highlight from the web page.

Now, the texts you have selected are already highlighted.

This button will appear automatically.
Choose ‘View in my library’ to view your selected text in your Diigo library.

Once you have viewed it in your Diigo library, only the highlighted paragraphs will appear.
Chapter 1: Diigo

STEP 7: Using Sticky Notes

1. First, click the ‘Comment’ button and choose ‘Add a floating sticky note to this page’.

2. Next, place your sticky note anywhere you like on the page.

3. Now, you can write a comment on your sticky note. You also can make your note private or you can share it with the public or your group.
Hiding Sticky Notes

- Sometimes you would prefer to see only your own notes, or specific group annotation but not public sticky notes from all other users.
- With diigo toolbar installed, you can hide them.

To start hiding your sticky note, click ‘Hide public sticky notes’.
This window will appear and you need to choose ‘Do not show me public sticky notes on this page’. Then click ‘OK’.

First, click the ‘Capture’ button and choose either ‘Capture Selected Area’ or ‘Capture Entire Page’.

If you choose ‘Capture Selected Area’, press hold and select the area you want to capture.

Before you save, you can edit the image using these tools. After clicking the ‘save’ icon, the image you capture will automatically appear in your Diigo library.

STEP 9 Capturing Images/Pages
In your Diigo page, you can create your own group. Click ‘My Group’ to open your group page.

Click ‘Create a group’ to start creating your Diigo group.

Fill in the form to create a group. After that, you are allowed to invite your friends to join your group.

Then, click ‘Create my group’.
Once your group have been created, you can invite your friends to join your group either through your Diigo friends or you can invite by inserting your friends’ emails.

Example of a Diigo group.

All members can post bookmarks and topics for discussion.

Click ‘Invite people’ to invite friends to join your group.

WHAT IS DEL.ICIO.US?

In brief, Delicious (formerly del.icio.us, pronounced "delicious") is a social bookmarking web service for storing, sharing, and discovering web bookmarks (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Delicious_%28website%29). It allows users to tag, save, manage and share web pages from a centralized source. With emphasis on the power of the community, Delicious greatly improves how people discover, remember and share on the Internet (http://www.delicious.com/help/about).

ADVANTAGES OF USING DEL.ICIO.US

Several advantages of using Delicious include:

1. Saving and accessing bookmarks online.
2. Promoting our own sites.
3. Finding bookmarks from other users on your network.
4. Networking with other users who are in your network.
5. Reading your network’s bookmarks, since Del.icio.us provides convenient RSS feeds.
6. Using a “profile” tag, such as users’ bookmarks tagged with “profile” on del.icio.us to feature sites, best posts and articles and important sites linking to you.

(Source: http://onlinesapiens.wordpress.com/2008/07/19/using-delicious-in-education/)

USING DEL.ICIO.US IN EDUCATION

The following are several of usage of Delicious in education suggested by Gabriela (2007):

1. It is useful for its flexibility as students may work on a variety of computers at a variety of setting.
2. It can support lectures as an additional bibliography.
3. It is a mechanism for building learning communities if a tag is identified with the students who can then contribute to this link archive. It could promote group cohesion and belonging although the risk is that students would not contribute equally.
4. It increases network of learning outside the initial group by tagging resources with quality notes and links shared to a wider audience.
5. It provides informal and formative feedback to the teacher as they can see students’ preferences and interests which could then inform their planning.
6. It promotes the students to manage and analyse their resource collection as they would be encouraged to firstly weigh up the value of the resource, and then analyse and create a synopsis of its worth through tagging. The number of times a site is saved would also alert them to the issues of credibility, value and utility. This would engage the students further in the learning process.
GET STARTED WITH DEL.ICIO.US

WHAT IS CROCODOC?

Crocodoc is a free online tool for sharing, reviewing and annotating documents such as PDF files, web pages, Microsoft Words docs, and Power Point presentations online. Crocodoc is a good way to collaborate and helps annotate PDF files online. You do not need to install any other applications to share and review your documents. You are only required to upload the document to review it and you can share the edited document with others by sharing the unique URL created by Crocodoc (Anvin 2010). It has user-friendly interface and is very simple to use (Umar 2011).

BENEFITS OF USING CROCODOC

According to Anvin (2011), Crocodoc has the following benefits:

- It is a free web-based application for sharing and reviewing documents online.
- No need to register to start using Crocodoc.
- The features like highlight, add notes, strike-out, etc. make the document uploaded can be annotate collaboratively.
- The documents are stored securely on the Crocodoc servers.
- The Crocodoc website has a very simple interface and you will be able to share and review documents within seconds.
• For a free account, you will be able to upload files that are of 20MB and above. And you also can keep track of all the documents that you have uploaded.
• The edited documents can be saved in PDF format.

INTEGRATING CROCODOC INTO THE CLASSROOM

Crocodoc can be integrated into the classroom as follows:
• Share documents with colleagues.
• Students submit their work to you using Crocodoc.
• Add notes, highlight, and edit the document and “send” the revisions back to the students.
• Students use Crocodoc to collaborate on group projects
• Upload the free e-book in PDF format to Crocodoc and share the URL with students.
• Upload the presentations to Crocodoc to share with students who were absent.
• Absent student can review the presentation, add notes, and type questions that they may have about the learning.

WHAT IS iCYTE?

iCyte is a research bookmarking tool that is similar to Delicious, a social bookmarking tool. However, with iCyte, it is easier to learn and use when doing research. There is already a team of students already with a common research task that allows them to rapidly share and collaborate information. The most crucial part of iCyte is using appropriate tags in order to get results rapidly and efficiently. By using common, multiple tags will allow students to sort out information more effectively and quickly. You must first register an account with iCyte in order to share a project and to develop that common tagging system.

(Source: http://racquel422.blogspot.com/2010/11/journal-10-teach-your-students-to-share.html)

ADVANTAGES OF iCYTE

- iCyte is a free technology tool that allows student to work in teams or groups to collaborate on a research project even if they are not together.
- With iCyte, each person can work on their own time or at the same time in different places at once.
• By tagging and annotating each site collectively, it will be so much easier to gather and sort out information.
• Users can embed all their research or results into their blogs and wikis to share with others that may be interested in their research topic.

WHAT IS WEBNOTES?

WebNotes is a research tool developed for researchers, that allows anyone to highlight and add sticky notes to the web pages and have those notes instantly added to a web-based research file.

(Source: http://lifehacker.com/5272528/webnotes-highlights-sticky+notes-and-organizes-web-research)

BENEFITS OF WEBNOTES

Here are some benefits of WebNotes:

- WebNotes makes it easy to highlight and add notes to web pages from directly within the web browser. Notes are saved automatically and will reappear any time when visit the page.
- Zoom in and out, search for text, and use WebNotes’ highlighting, commenting, and note-taking tools with online PDF viewer.
- Organize notes, bookmarks, and documents into folders, or tag them for easy reference. Search through the notes to find information instantly.
- WebNotes can be accessed from anywhere, either through our browser plug-in, or the WebNotes web site.
• Highlighted web pages and PDFs can be shared with others through email, permalink, or Twitter. Recipients will see the notes without having to download software or register for WebNotes.

• Share notes and clippings with colleagues and research team member by generating beautiful reports with WebNotes. Simply select one or more folders, choose a report template, and use WebNotes rich-text editor to make final changes. Then send the report by email, or export it to a PDF or HTML document.

(Source: http://notanotherhistoryteacher.edublogs.org/2011/09/10/help-students-with-online-research-using-webnotes/)

WAYS OF USING WEBNOTES FOR RESEARCHER

The following are some ways of using WebNotes:

(a) Take Notes Online
Use a virtual highlighter and sticky note tool make notes on web pages or PDFs from online sources such as the PubMed, Factiva or ProQuest. Notes are automatically saved to your online account.

(b) Organize Research
Maintain your thesis research in an organized fashion by compiling your annotated content into nested folders. All annotations are searchable to make sure you never lose another source.
(c) Collaborate with Colleagues and research team

Compile your analysis into emailable reports. Reports may also be used as an outline to help you write. All of your notes and data, complete with source, will be readily available.

WHAT IS SCOOP.IT?

Scoop.it is a content curation platform, where users can curate information about any topic they want. Users will be able to create a topic of their choice (no limits) and start curating information. The site is geared towards providing users a very quick and easy way to “scoop” any information that they feel is relevant to the topic they have chosen.

BENEFITS OF USING SCOOP.IT

There are several benefits of using Scoop.it:

- No ads on either the user or the public end.
- Content is suggested to you but not included automatically. You have complete control over what goes into your topic.
- Posts can be promoted to the top spot and held there. This is useful if you blog on a particular topic and would like your latest blog post to be prominent.
- You can follow others who share the same passions as you.
