KUALA LUMPUR: Media Prima Bhd has announced several key appointments to the group's board of directors and its units, the New Straits Times Press (M) Bhd (NSTP) and Synchronsound Studio Sdn Bhd, effective yesterday.

Datuk Mohd Nasir Ahmad will join the boards of Media Prima and Synchronsound Studio an independent non-executive director, while Datuk Seri Subahan Kamal is appointed as an independent non-executive director of NSTP.

Media Prima group chairman Datuk Seri FD Iskandar said: "Media Prima is committed to implementing strategic actions to further consolidate its position as the largest integrated media group in Malaysia.

"The appointments of Datuk Mohd Nasir and Datuk Seri Subahan are significant additions to a very strong board in existence at Media Prima and our subsidiary companies," said FD Iskandar in a statement yesterday.

He added that the appointment of Nasir to the board of Media Prima reflected the group's commitment to implement best practices and good corporate governance, where 70 per cent of the board's composition are made of independent non-executive directors.

Nasir, 62, is the former chief executive officer of Perbadanan Usahawan Nasional Bhd, Syarikat Permodalan Kebangsaan Bhd and Malaysia Transformer Manufacturing Sdn Bhd.

He currently serves on the boards of Bina Darulaman Bhd, Sumatec Resources Bhd, CIMB Group Holdings Bhd, CIMB Bank Bhd, CIMB Group Sdn Bhd, Mimos Bhd and Sirim Bhd.

Nasir holds a Master of Business Administration (Finance) from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia and is a fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, United Kingdom, and a Chartered Accountant with the Malaysian Institute of Accountants.

Subahan, meanwhile, currently serves as chairman of Can One Bhd and Wawasan Qi Properties Sdn Bhd.

He is also a board member of Kian Joo Bhd and president of the Malaysia Hockey Confederation.

The 50-year-old holds a Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Accounting from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, United States.
