

Konnichiwa

(Second row, from right) Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor and Japanese First Lady Aki Abe with children of the Permata Pintar Negara programme at its centre in Bangi. Aki was in Malaysia with her husband Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe, who is attending the 27th Asean Summit. During the visit, she was entertained with performances by the children.

Abe: We will help M'sia grow

Japan will provide high-value investments and aid country in realising Vision 2020 advanced industrial technology, service and managerial skills," said Abe.

EXCLUSIVE

"Furthermore, human resource development in the engineering field through the Malaysia-Japan International Institute for Technology (MJIT) will also be conducive to Malaysia's endeavours for Vision 2020."

By VICTORIA BROWN