The late Dr. Surin Pitsuwan. Surin Abdul Halim bin Ismail Pitsuwan was the great Southeast Asian statesman, scholar, politician, and diplomat of Thai people of Malay descent. He was born in Nakhon Si Thammarat, southern Thailand on October 28, 1949. Dr. Surin received his first degree in political science from Thammasat University before pursuing his studies at Harvard University, receiving his MA in 1974 and PhD in 1982. His doctoral dissertation was entitled, Islam and Malay Nationalism. Dr. Surin began his career as a lecturer at Thammasat University and wrote regularly for daily newspapers in Bangkok. He leaved his academic path and started his political career in 1986 as member of parliament from Nakhon Si Thammarat. He was appointed many positions before becoming Minister of Foreign Affairs in 1997. He was the second Thai to become the secretary-general of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) during which he served in Jakarta in 2008 for a five-year term. Dr. Surin passed away on November 30th 2017. This volume is a tribute to the late Dr. Surin Pitsuwan. A commemorating article of expanded biography could be found at the end of this journal.

NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

International Journal of Islamic Thought (IJIT) is jointly published by the Department of Theology and Philosophy, National University of Malaysia and Wisdom Academia Venture (WAVE). The mission of IJIT is to encourage the academic study and publication on Islamic thought. The Journal welcomes academic articles as well as research papers and book reviews. The journal is supported by a team of editorial board who involved in the managing and reviewing process and a team of international advisory board who are the key experts in the field of Islamic Thought.

Article Preparation:

All manuscripts and editorial communications should be sent to the journal's Chief Editor and manuscripts should not exceed 5000 words. Manuscripts should be double spaced using Cambria font size 11. On the front page of the article is 200 words English abstract together with the name(s) of author(s), affiliation as well as address for correspondence and ORCID iD. Also enclose brief biographical notes of author(s). The article should also have not been published previously.

Presentation:

The editors place great emphasis on a clear IMRaD written style expressing a well-structured presentation of ideas. Main headings should be typed in capitals and subheadings in lower case. Footnotes should be avoided. When an author's name appears in the text, the date should follow in brackets, e.g. Ahmad (2000), or where there is a reference to a particular page or quotation, e.g. Ahmad (2000: 37). References should be placed in alphabetical order at the end of the paper and should be in Roman script. The APA conventions should be observed.

Refereeing Procedure:

At least two expert referees as well as an editor will review each manuscript. The refereeing process takes up to a month from the date of receipt of the article from the author. The final decision regarding acceptance of the paper remains with the editorial board of the IJIT.

Publication Ethics:

International Journal of Islamic Thought is committed to meeting the highest standards of publications ethics. This journal is a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) and abides strictly by its Principles and Code of Conduct in publishing, editing, and reviewing as well as aims to adhere to its Best Practice Guidelines. Authors are expected to follow its ethical standards before submitting to our journal.

Article Submission:

The processing fee for publication of original papers and reviews in this journal is USD 200.00. Two hard copies of the manuscripts and soft copy of the file should be submitted in Microsoft Word format to:
