

Andrew Kam Jia Yi is a Senior Research Fellow at the Institute of Malaysian and International Studies (IKMAS, UKM) and an Associate Professor in Economics. He graduated with first class in Economics at the National University of Malaysia (UKM) in 2002. He received the Chevening scholarship in 2006 to pursue his Msc. in Economics at the University of Warwick, UK, and his Ph.D. in Australian National University in 2008 under the Endeavour Postgraduate Scholarship. He was also a Fulbright Scholar at the University of California Santa Barbara (2015/2016). He has served as a consultant to many national and international organizations i.e Economic Planning Unit, the Prime Ministers' Department, Malaysia Digital Economy Corporation (MDEC), UNCTAD, UNESCO, and ADB. His research areas are development economics, international trade, NTMs, GVCs, production sharing/production fragmentation, productivity studies, industrialization, and technology transfers.