

Dr. Lubna Alam

A Researcher on Environmental Risk

+60146420690, lubna@ukm.edu.my;

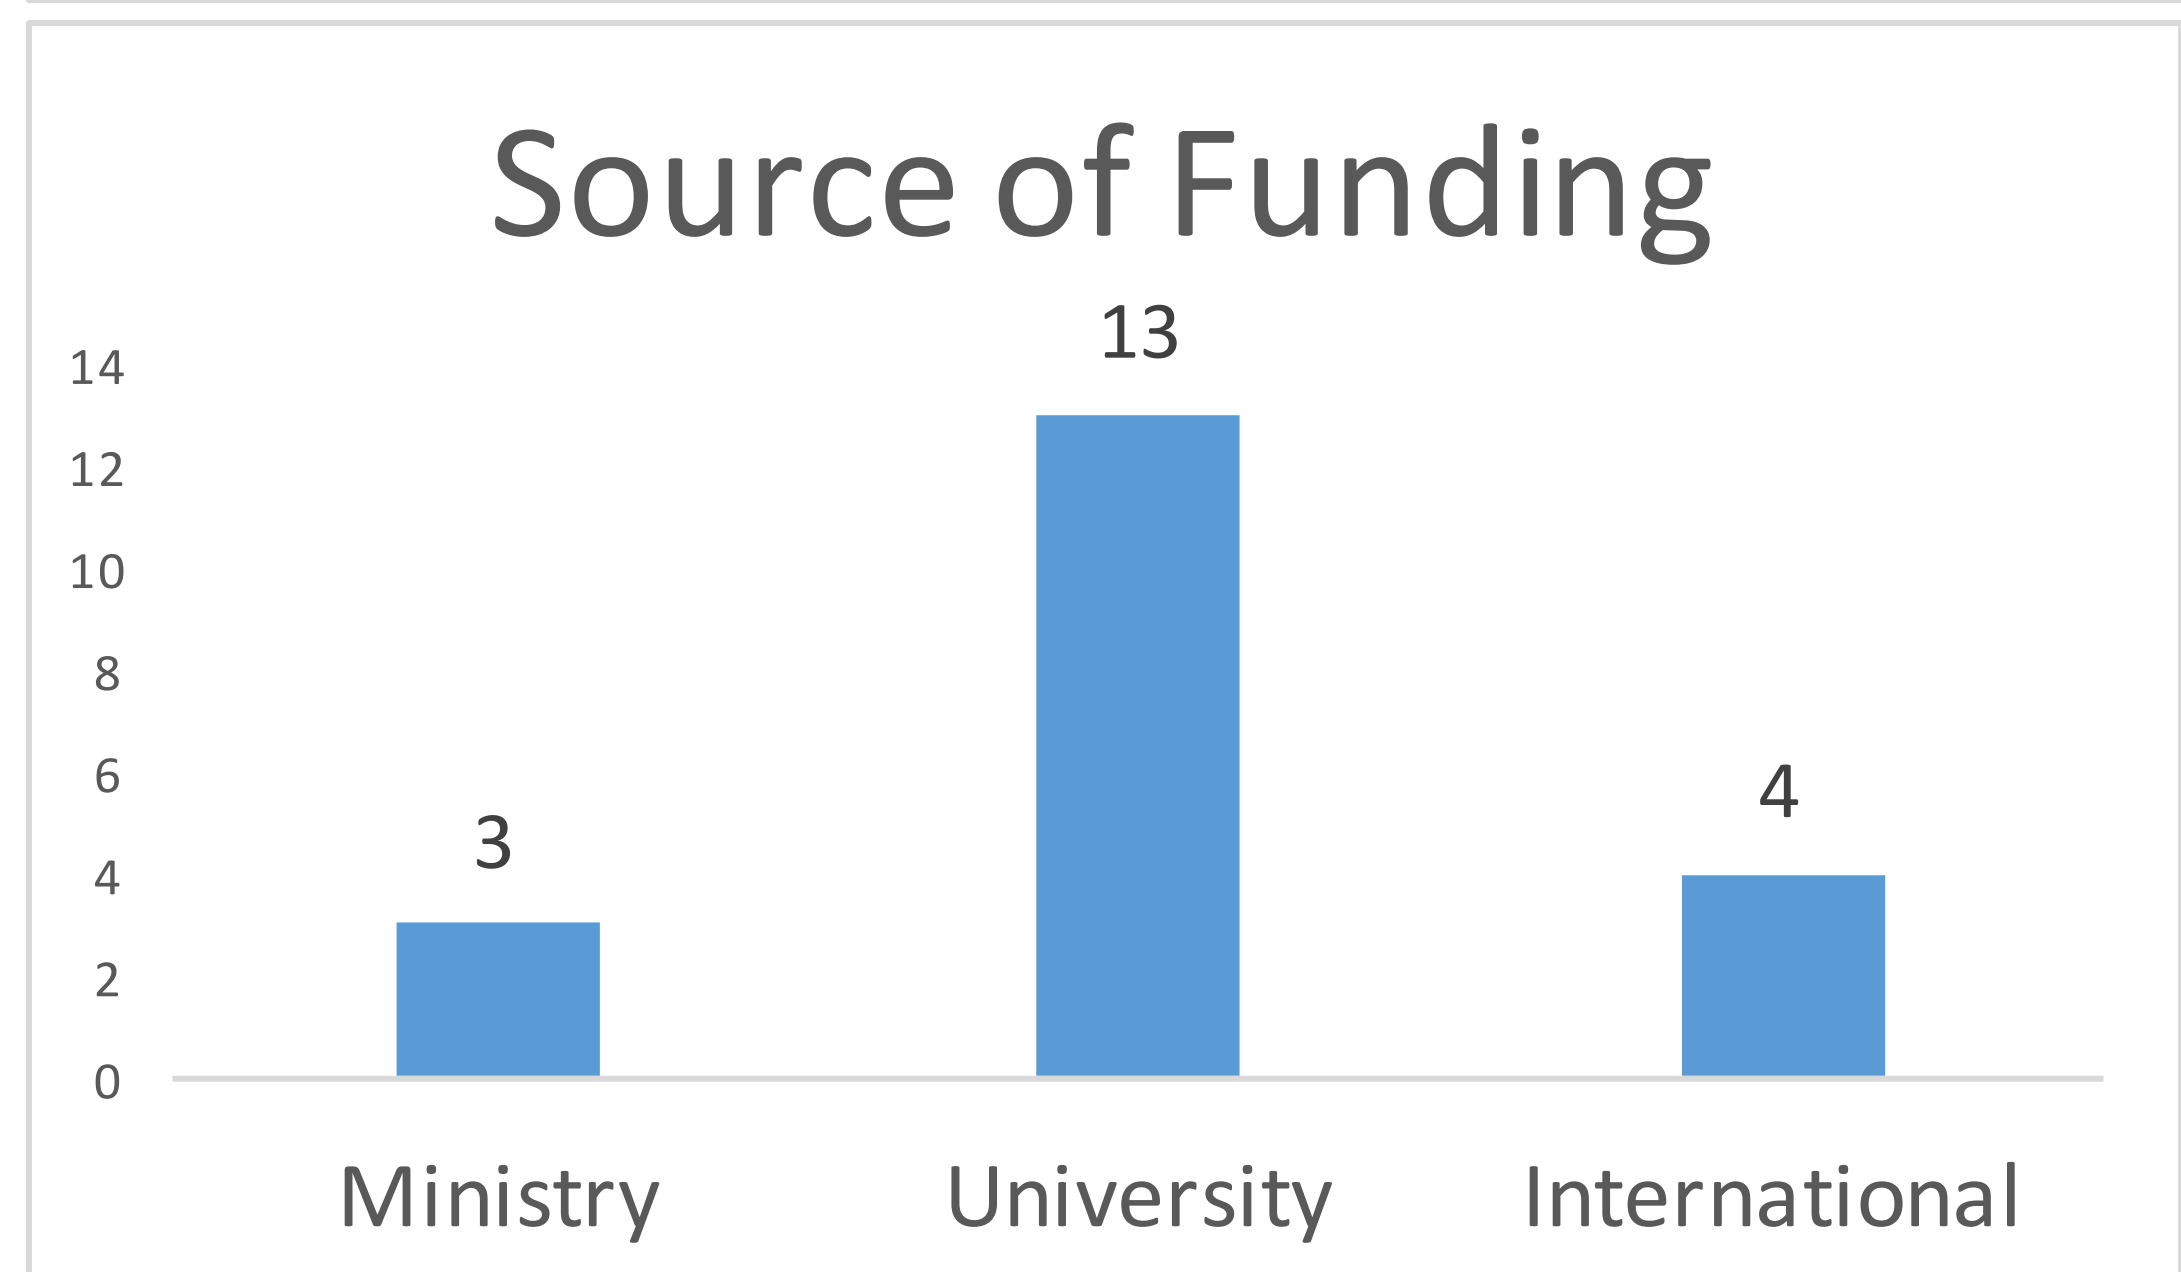

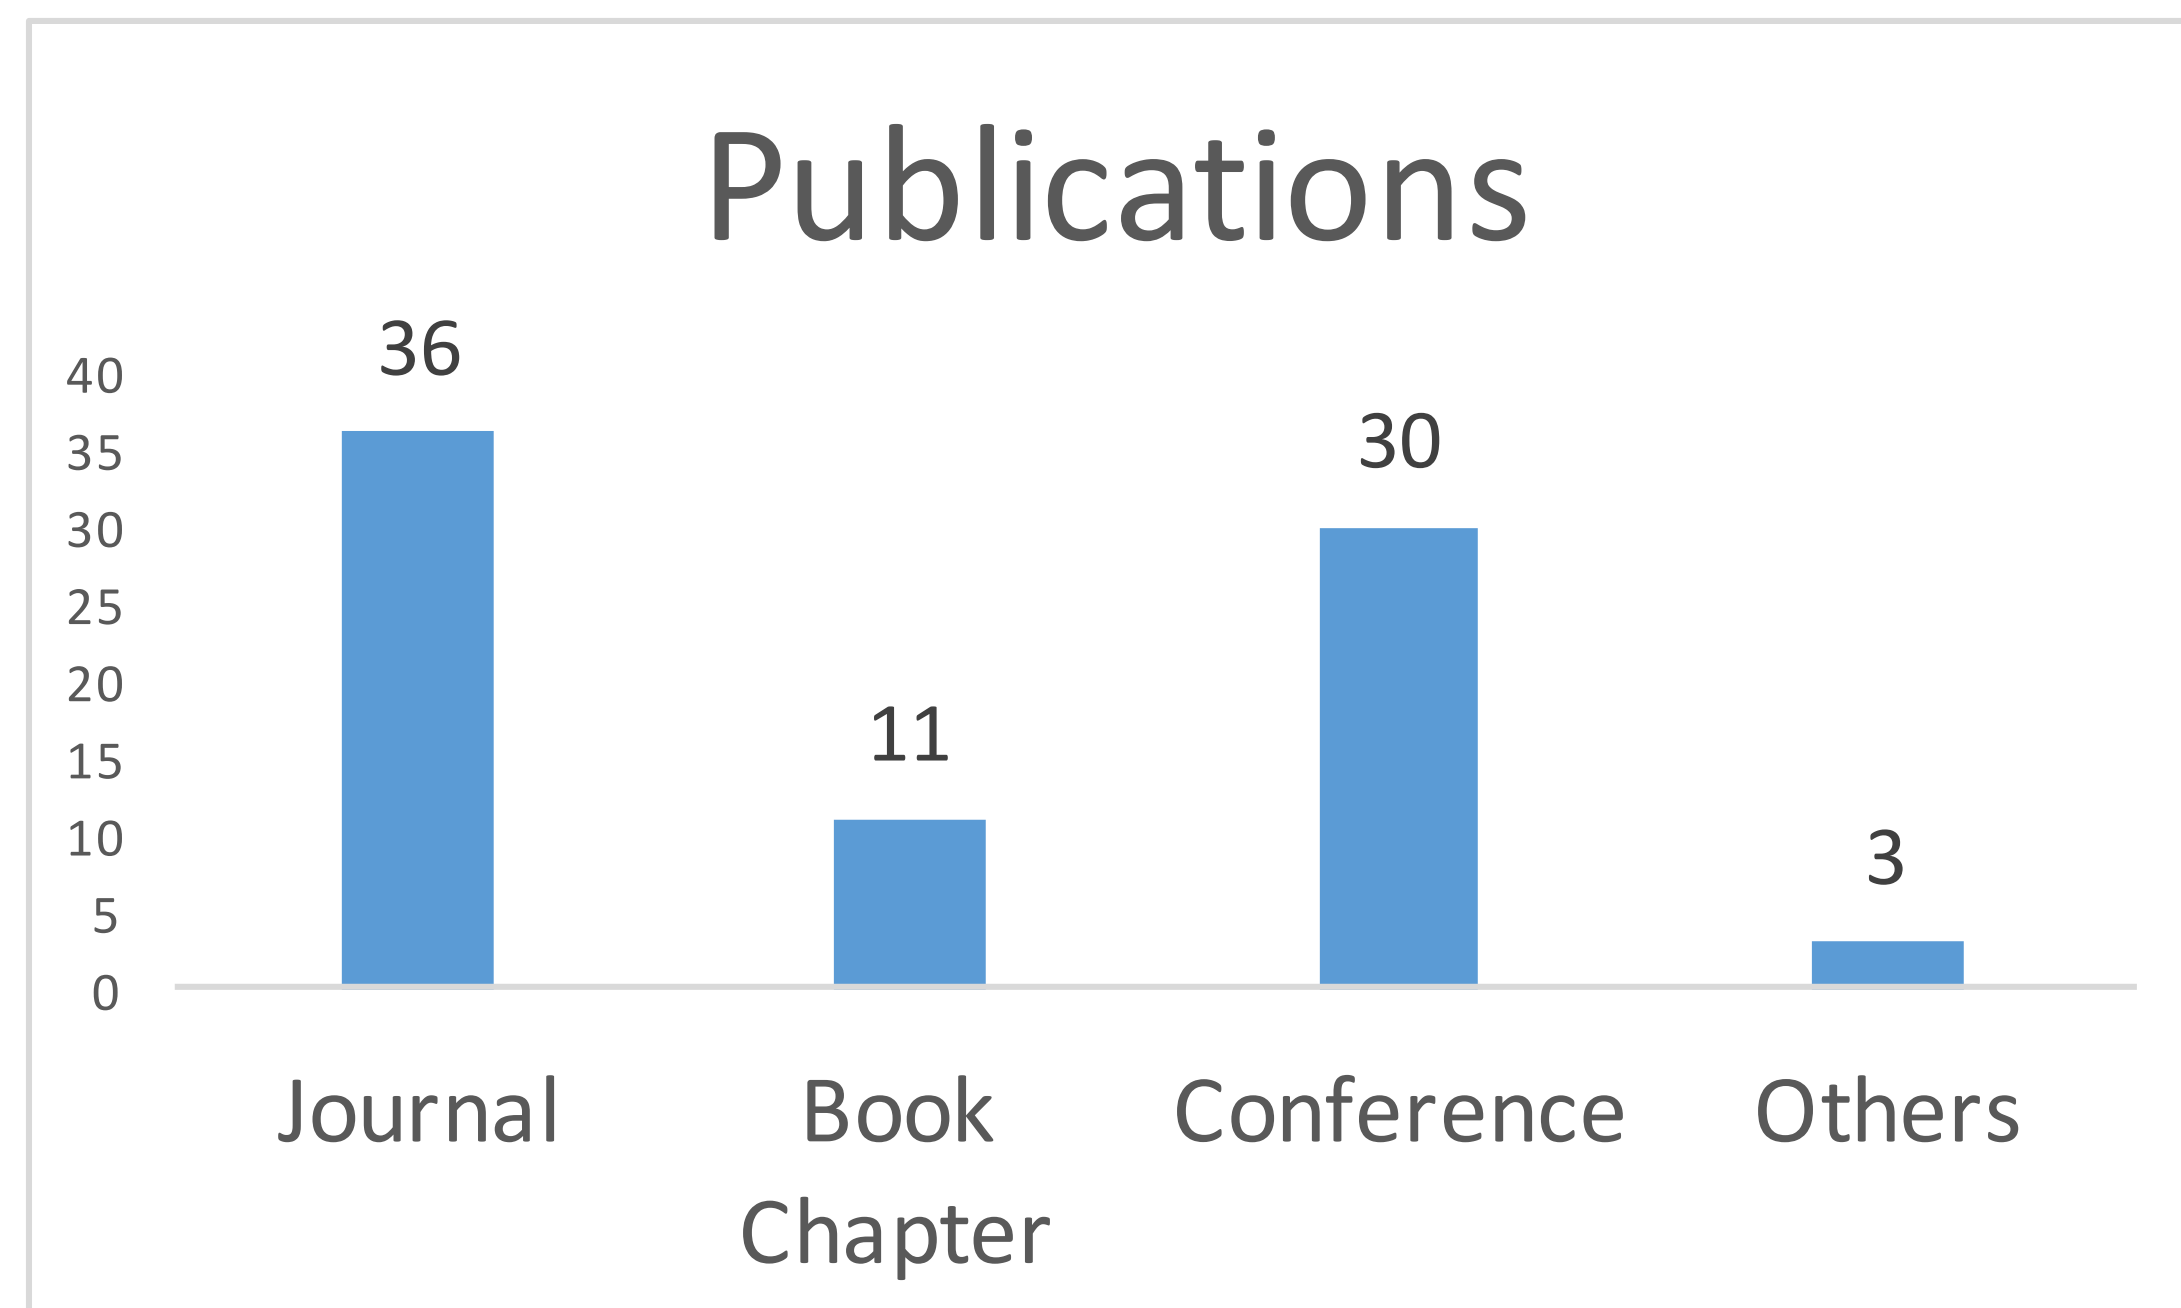

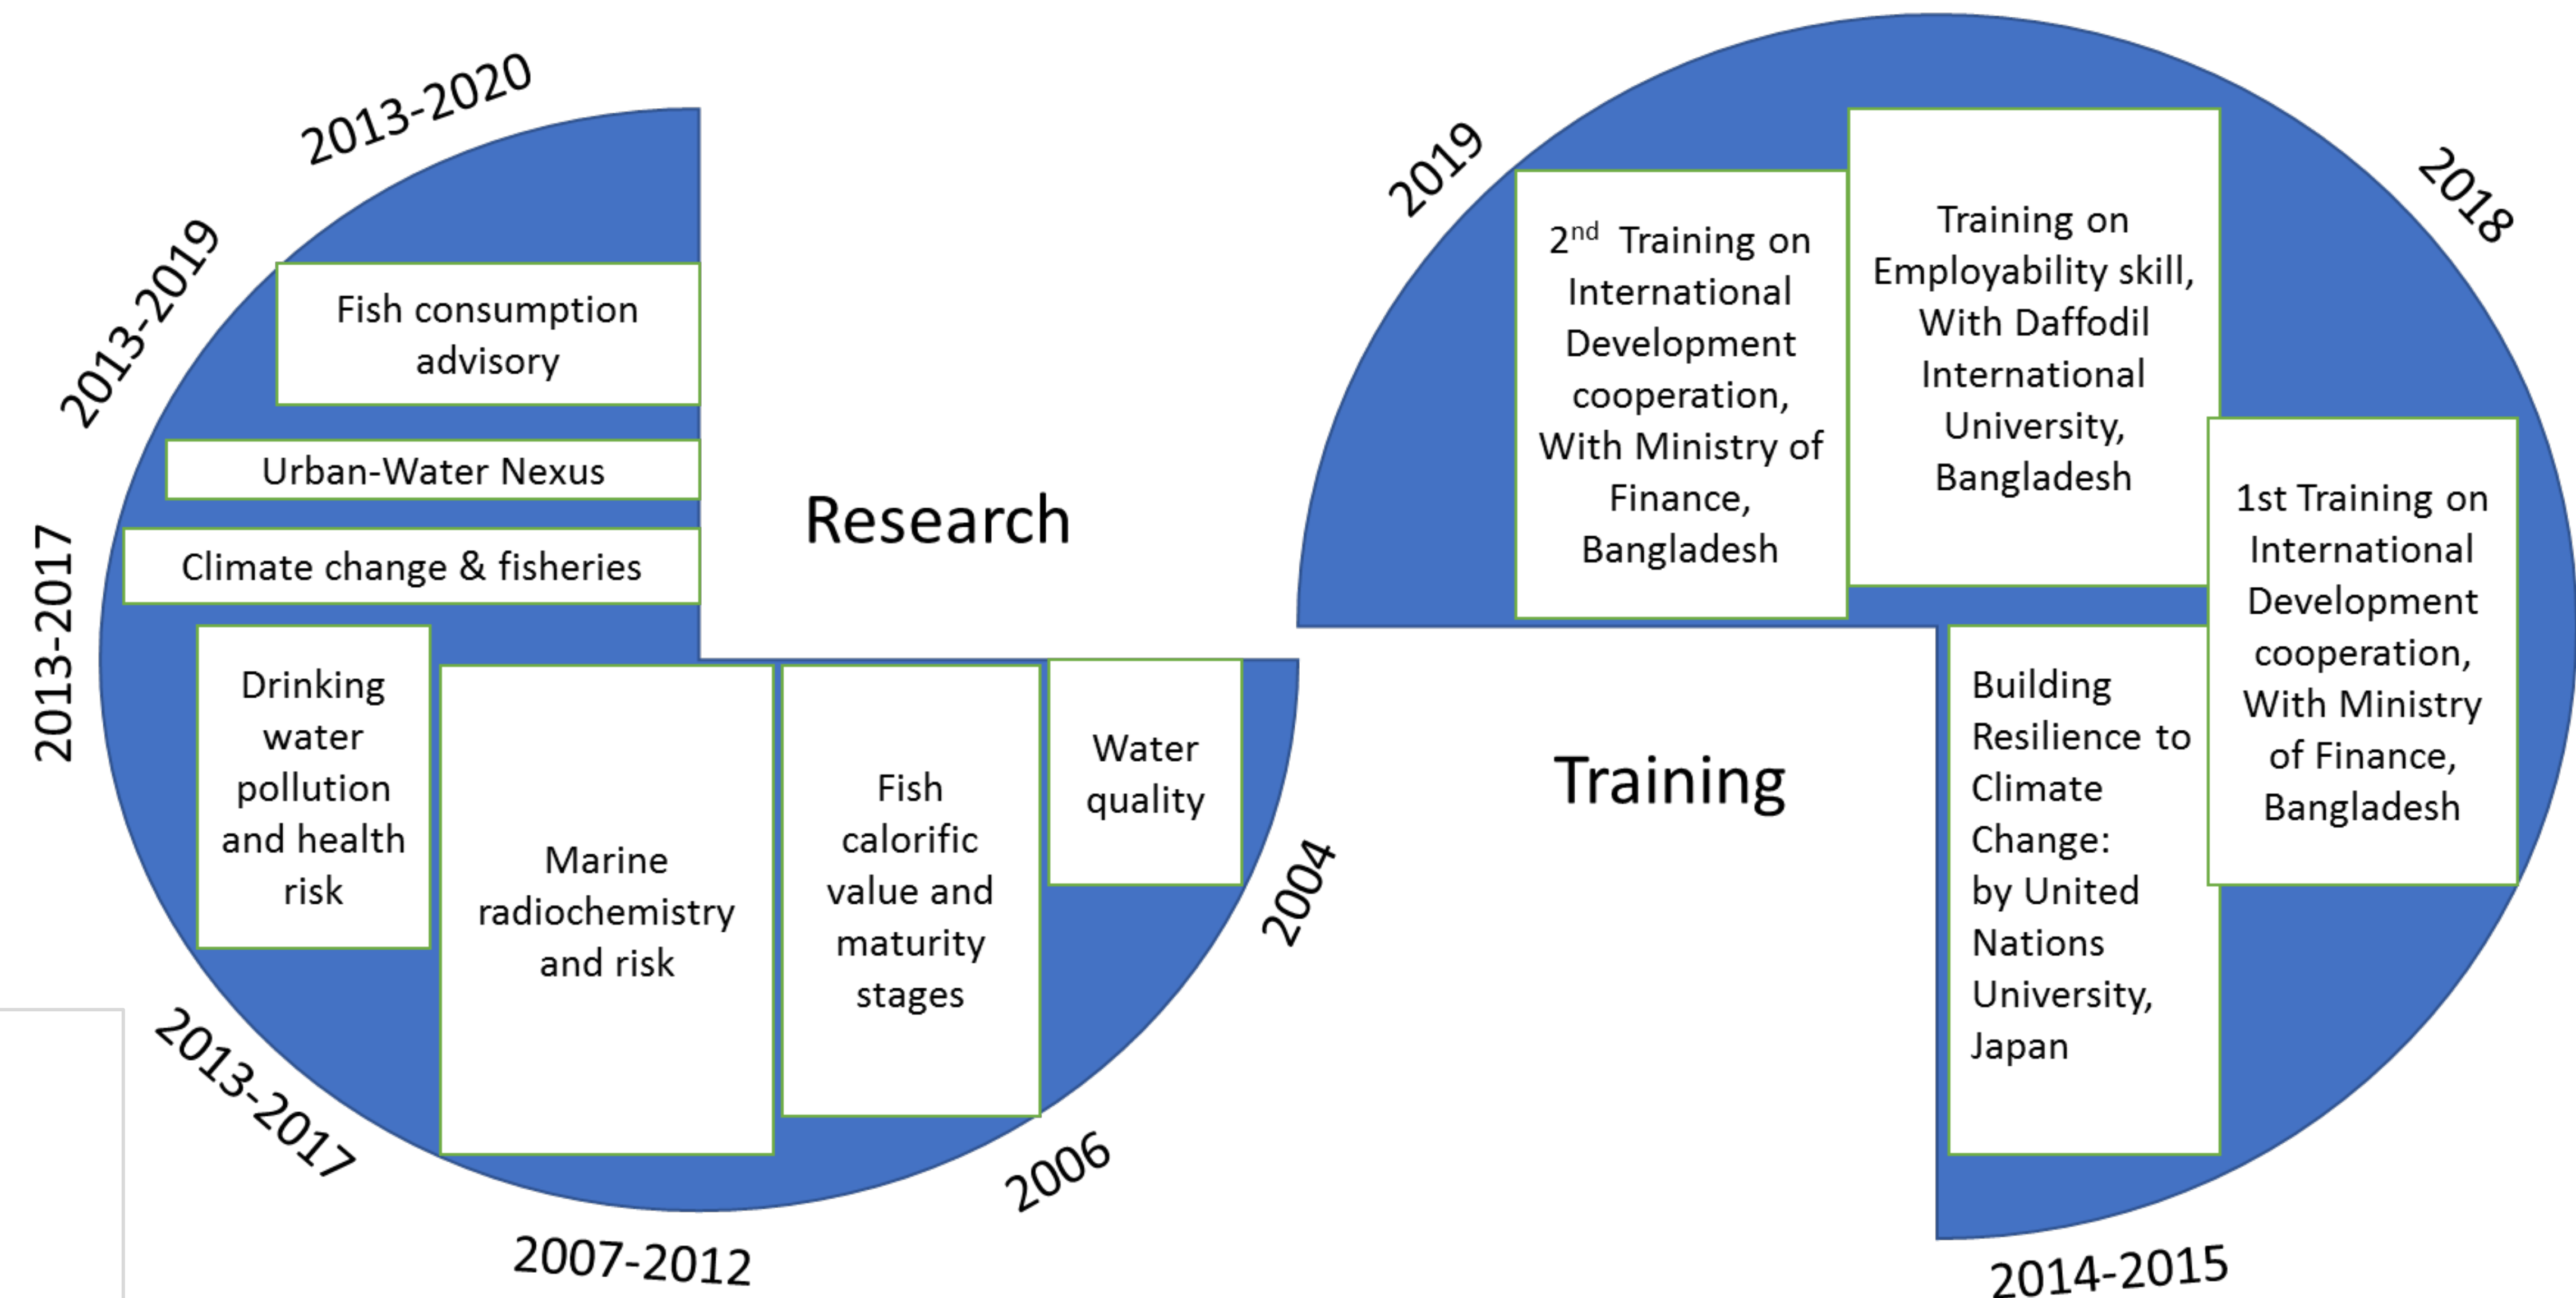

Expertise

- Risk Assessment and Management
- Environmental Pollution
- Fisheries
- Climate Change
- Sustainable Development

Supervision

- 3 PhD students (1 Malaysian and 2 international)
- 1 Masters student (Malaysian)
- 1 Post Doctorate (International)

International Network

Key Targets

- ✓ Formulating fish consumption advisory in Malaysia.
- ✓ Conducting trainings and consultation at national and international level.
- ✓ Establishing LESTARI's research and training centers in Bangladesh and other parts of the world.
- ✓ Achieving international research projects.
- ✓ Publications in journals and books.

Selected Highlights

- TWAS-UNESCO Associateship offered by The World Academy of Sciences, 2018
- Pan Asia Risk Reduction Fellowship at University of the Philippines Los Baños, Offered by START, USA, 2016.
- Recognized as "Talented Young Researcher and Dedicated Environmentalist" on media event showcasing: Research universities' success stories, Graced by The Minister of Education, Malaysia, May 2014.
- Awarded MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP) Scholarship, Offered by the Ministry of Higher Education, Malaysia, for obtaining the PhD degree, 2008-2011.
- International Collaboration with Ministry of Finance, Bangladesh, 2018
- Established Malay Language center in Daffodil International University, Bangladesh. 2017.

