

Key Achievements

of The Malaysian Cohort Project from 2006 to 2020

Ying-Xian Goh, Mohd Arman Kamaruddin, Noraidatulakma Abdullah & Rahman Jamal
UKM Medical Molecular Biology Institute (UMBI), UKM Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

*Corresponding contact: rahmanj@ppukm.ukm.edu.my

Year of Publication: 2020

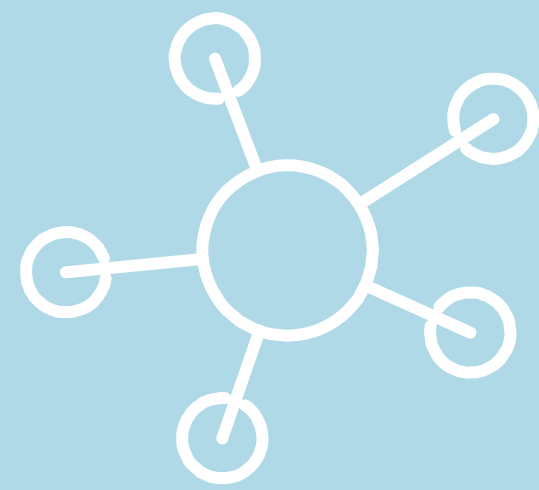

Achievements in Information Database and Community Development

1 Accommodated 4 in-house Information Management Systems & Databases

2 Linked Database with National Registration Department

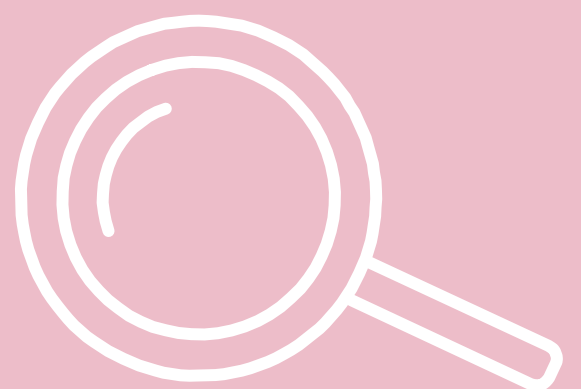

3 ISO accredited medical research laboratory for almost 10 years

4 Generated 500 job opportunities for graduates nationwide

5 Large scale Colorectal Screening using iFOBT kit

6 Improves quality-adjusted life year annually amounted RM 5000 per participant

7 Save RM840 million on return of productivity gain due to early disease detection, according to UKM health economist

8 Establishment of Sub-cohorts with diversified socio-economical background such as of:
FELDA B40
Local tribes

