

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN MIDWIFERY

Conditions for Admission

Candidates who wish to apply for the Advanced Diploma in Midwifery Program must meet the following conditions: –

Candidates must pass the Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM) or its equivalent examination with distinction at least five of the following subjects: –

Malay language
1 subjects
3 other subjects

AND

Graduated in Mathematics and English

Priority will be given to candidates who graduated in Science (Biology, Physics and Chemistry).

Age: 17 years old at the beginning and not exceeding 40 years

This course is open to male and female

Marital status: Not married, and married but it is advised not pregnant during the period following the program.

Shows evidence in the form provided by the University that they are healthy enough and able to follow a course of nursing.

Admission to the Faculty of Medicine of candidates depends on the discretion of the Senate from time to time.

Candidates who wish to follow the Advanced Diploma in Midwifery Program must meet the following conditions:

Nursing Diploma recognized by the government and have experience of at least 3 years work continuously or one year of experience in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology

OR

Bachelor of Nursing (Hons) recognized by the government,